Guidelines for both Hope and SSBG funding

- Funds are for community non-profit organizations providing health and social services to Juneau residents;
- The following projects will NOT be considered: maintaining, acquiring, improving or constructing facilities;
- Grantees will be required to file interim and final reports on how funds are used and outcomes;
- Approximately $1.7 million will be available for granting, with no minimum or maximum funding level;
- Cooperative proposals - several agencies addressing a priority may be eligible for multi-year funding;
- All applicants must have provided a Letter of Interest and, if applicable, an Interim Report on any 2019 Hope Endowment/CBJ Social Service grant;
- An annual granting process will be followed; organizations should submit ONLY one application.
- Guidelines for the two pools of funding below are to help you determine if your project/program is eligible for funding; you do not select which funds you are applying for.

Juneau Hope Endowment Fund Guidelines

Funds support programs and projects in the following areas: suicide prevention, hospice, substance abuse, homelessness, mental health, and victims of abuse.
